RE: MURs 7403 and 7441
Defending Main Street SuperPAC

Dear Mr. Thomas and Ms. Carrier:

On June 6, 2018, and on July 26, 2018, the Federal Election Commission notified your clients, Defending Main Street SuperPAC, Inc., and Sarah Chamberlain in her official capacity as treasurer (the "SuperPAC") of complaints alleging that the SuperPAC had violated certain sections of the Federal Election Campaign Act of 1971, as amended (the "Act").

On March 26, 2019, the Commission considered the complaints but there was an insufficient number of votes to dismiss the allegation that the SuperPAC violated the Act. Accordingly, the Commission closed its file in this matter. A Statement of Reasons providing a basis for the Commission's decision is not required in this matter, but if one is issued, it will be provided to you.

Documents related to the case will be placed on the public record within 30 days. See Disclosure of Certain Documents in Enforcement and Other Matters, 81 Fed. Reg. 50,702 (Aug. 2, 2016).

If you have any questions, please contact Wanda Brown, the attorney assigned to this matter, at (202) 694-1650.

Sincerely,
